AFRICA

GHANA
Survey of Current Issues in African Migration
EARLY JUNE–LATE JULY
(3 or 6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
The International Organization for Migration (IOM) is the leading international agency in the field of migration. This fieldwork practicum provides access to IOM’s technical cooperation and capacity-building projects in Ghana and exposes students to the complexities of implementing humanitarian and development programs. You may work in Accra or rural areas alongside professionals in the field. (IRP/ANT 400/600/PAT 600)

SOUTH AFRICA
Implementing and Evaluating Health Education Programs
MID-MAY–LATE JUNE
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
You will travel to Grahamstown, South Africa, where you will collaborate with local community partners to implement and evaluate a mutually designed health education program. You will also have the opportunity to visit local NGOs and community clinics, attend lectures by SU and Rhodes University faculty and local community experts, and immerse yourself in the history, education, health, and culture of South Africa. (HTW/NSD 400/600)

ASIA

THREE CITIES ASIA:
Architecture and Urbanism
EARLY JUNE–MID-AUGUST
(9 credits) undergraduate or graduate
In this studio and seminar, you will live in three dense and vibrant Asian cities—Hong Kong, Taipei, and Shanghai. Through visits to prominent urban attractions and throughout your daily life, you will construct observations through two lenses—the macro (through literature and lectures on data and facts, policies and codes, etc.) and the micro (through your own eyes). Then you’ll choose an urban issue, such as food, housing, transportation, or hydrology, and build a narrative form of your focused research within the three cities. (ARC 407/408/607/609 and ARC 500)

CHINA
Internships in Shanghai
MID-JUNE–EARLY AUGUST
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
This program is designed for undergraduate or graduate students who have already completed at least one term of study in China. Developed in collaboration with CET Academic Programs, the intensive eight-week internship program is also open to Chinese nationals earning their degrees at a US university. (IPA 470/670)

INDIA
Bollywood Practicum
LATE MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
Bollywood Practicum is a three-week, hands-on production course that offers an intensive experience studying film and/or video production in Bollywood (the popular commercial Hindi cinema made in Mumbai, India). You will be introduced to the history, aesthetics, language, business, and process of filmmaking in India, and incorporate these into your own media project. Cultural outings, film screenings, and other experiences supplement classroom activities. A trip to the Taj Mahal in Agra is included. (TRF 400/600)

JAPAN
Design Through a Tourist’s Eye: Japan from WWII to the 2020 Olympics
LATE MAY–EARLY JULY
(6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
This traveling research course will investigate architecture and planning born of the meeting of distinct cultures, societies, and governments, with a focus on projects from WWII to the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. The investigation will be based on the premise that, while Japanese culture is often viewed as unique and even insular, it is a product of strong foreign influences and the internal desire to connect with global society. (ARC 500)

SINGAPORE
Summer Internship Program
LATE MAY–LATE AUGUST
(3 or 6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
The program begins with a one-week mandatory orientation, which includes guest lectures, visits to local companies, and time to explore Singapore while your work visas are secured. Your internship begins at the start of the second week. Placements are available in a variety of areas, including but not limited to supply chain, process improvement, corporate finance, accounting, marketing, customer service, general management, legal, public affairs, and communications/entertainment. (BUA 470/670 and BUA 490/690)
AUSTRALIA

Australia: Sport, History, and Culture
EARLY JUNE–LATE JUNE
(3 credits)
Australia’s diverse environment is home to one of the world’s oldest surviving cultures. Over the course of the program, you’ll explore the continent’s fascinating history, as well as the population’s passionate love for sport, sometimes humorously described as “Australia’s national religion.” (SPM 400)

Global Indigenous Studies: Australia
LATE MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits)
This hands-on program allows you to learn about indigenous studies from a comparative perspective at one of the leading centers of indigenous education in Australia: the Wollotuka Institute at the University of Newcastle. You will be introduced to Aboriginal history and social issues as you interact with local students, scholars, and elders in the classroom and in workshops. You will also consider these complex issues from the broader perspective of global indigenous studies. (NAS 300)

EUROPE

Olympic Odyssey
MID-MAY–EARLY JUNE
(3 credits)
Your odyssey begins in London, where you’ll examine the impact of the 2012 Summer Games. From there you’ll visit Paris, the birthplace of the modern Olympic movement, and Lausanne, the present-day “Olympic Capital” that has been home to the International Olympic Committee since 1945. You’ll end in the ancient city of Athens, host of the first modern Olympics and the 2004 Summer Games. Along the way you’ll meet with Olympic development committees to understand international sports from a strategic sport management perspective. (SPM 400)

Comparative Health Policy
MID-MAY–EARLY JUNE
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
Policies and programs used to address a health problem in one country will be compared to policy approaches in other countries. In this course, you will learn how health systems shape the development of policies and the delivery of associated programs. You will visit the WHO in Geneva to discuss the various health systems in Europe, as well as destinations in the United Kingdom, France, and Romania. (HTW 400/600)

Belgium

Public Diplomacy Internships in Brussels
JUNE–JULY
(3 or 6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
Gain an understanding of public diplomacy and persuasive journalism in a European and international context in the heart of the European Union. Public diplomacy, journalism, and public relations students will pursue a seven-week internship within intergovernmental institutions, international NGOs, journalism organizations, lobbying offices, or think tanks in Brussels. In addition, you will participate in weekly seminars with guest lectures by European and international officials. (COM 470/PRL 530/635/IRP 370/670/PAI 670)

$4,000
The Office of Financial Aid awards Study Abroad Grants up to $4,000 for 6 credits (up to $2,000 for 3 credits) based on financial need.

“I was able to hone many hard skills, such as PR writing and editing. Equally, if not more important were the new perspectives and insights that I gained in my time at Kenexa. Specifically, I learned more about how the concepts of face and guanxi are intrinsically tied to business dealings and cross-cultural communication with Chinese people.”
Fiona Cotton
Syracuse University
ENGLAND

Law Internships in London
LATE MAY–MID-JULY
(6 credits)
You will spend the first week of the seven-week program attending lectures by authorities in English law. During this time, class will be supplemented by visits to one of the Inns of Court and a guided tour of legal London. Students then undertake six-week internships with barristers, solicitors, public agencies, or other legal organizations, under the supervision of Syracuse University College of Law faculty. (LAW 910)

Inside the London Theater
MID-MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits)
Experience the range and breadth of London theater, from well-known titles to lesser-known discoveries, from the tried-and-true to the comparatively untested, from musical theater to Shakespeare. You’ll learn how to see theater and to write and read about it. A willingness to immerse yourself in London’s critical culture and the spectrum of live performance is helpful and expected. (DRA/ETS 400)

Global Religious Pluralism in London
MID-MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
This course invites you to explore the rich and complex dynamics of religious pluralism within the global metropolis of London. You will share and discuss religious texts and writings about religion in a seminar context. More importantly, you will engage with diverse religious communities, joining them for ritual, practice, and dialogue. Activities and conversations are designed to heighten your own religious literacy and develop intercultural competencies. Issues explored with communities of faith include religious conflict and models of interfaith cooperation, as demonstrated in Northern Ireland and London’s ever-transitioning East End. (REL 400/600)

Civic Writing in London
MID-MAY–LATE JUNE
(3 credits)
Join an international team of scholars and community writers to explore the power and impact of writing as a tool for social justice. You will work to establish an activist writing archive, work with London-based writing groups, and produce your own publication for circulation in the United States and United Kingdom. (WRT 301)

Nineteenth Century Urban Cultures: London and Paris
MID-MAY–LATE JUNE
(6 credits for undergraduates, 3 for graduates)
Over the course of the 19th century, London and Paris were transformed from dark, congested, and dangerous cities into the modern, organized capitals we experience today. With a focus on architecture, commerce, and the literature that recorded but also helped to shape perceptions of the new urban experience, this course will explore how Paris and London emulated, copied, and learned from one another in their respective efforts to become the world’s greatest city. (ETS 350/HST 400/600/ENG 600)

Mass Media in London
MID-MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits)
As a European hub and portal to the world, London offers an unparalleled learning opportunity to study mass media. This program features visits to major media outlets, press rooms, and studios, with access to top professionals in a wide range of public communications fields, including advertising, broadcasting, public relations, television, and other entertainment industries. You will focus on current themes of importance in both the US and UK, which offers ample opportunities to compare and contrast US and the UK political systems as well as media methods and strategies in a global world. While London is the main base, students will have an overnight stay in Cardiff, Wales, hosted by the preeminent Welsh advertising agency, Golley Slater. (COM 300)

FRANCE

Religion, Law, and Human Rights in Strasbourg
MID-MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
Focusing on both European and non-European jurisdictions, the course will introduce you to contemporary debates about the role of religion in public and political life and familiarize you with critical human and women’s rights issues. You will also discuss contemporary multicultural and pluri-legal challenges to universal human rights values and principles. (IRP/MES/PSC 400.1/600.1)

Paris Noir: Literature, Art, and Contemporary Life in Diaspora
MID-JUNE–MID-JULY
(6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
Study the influence and dynamics of Black culture, literature, and experience in Paris, past and present. Like a jazz composition, the seminar is arranged to convey variations and diverse interpretations of the “Paris Noir” theme and features panel discussions; poetry readings; and visits to community theater workshops, working artists’ studios, nightclubs, concerts, African markets, and restaurants. (AAS/LIT/WGS 400/600/ETS 400 and AAS/WGS 490/690/ETS 490)

Summer Internships in Strasbourg
MID-JUNE–MID-JULY
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
An ideal gateway to the fascinating political landscape of the new Europe, Strasbourg, France, is home to the Council of Europe, the European Court of Human Rights, and the Parliament of the European Union. You’ll discover the historical and cultural layers of old Europe in this welcoming and walkable city. French language is required for most placements. (BUA/FRE/IPA/PSC 470/670)

Engineering Research Projects in Strasbourg
MID-MAY–EARLY JULY
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
Students in all major areas of engineering have an opportunity to conduct research projects at the Institut National des Sciences Appliquées (INSA). No prior language knowledge is required, although a basic knowledge of French is desirable. (ECS/MAE 490/690)

Words Between Worlds: Workshop in Creative Nonfiction
MID-MAY–MID-JUNE
(3 credits)
Set in Strasbourg, this course focuses on the unfamiliar experience of leaving home to live in another country by defining what it’s like to be “neither here nor there” while studying abroad. Upon completion of the course, you will have created a portfolio of experimental and “finished” work that reflects both the changed geography and culture(s) you encounter abroad as well as new voices discovered within. (WRT 300)

GREECE

Research Through Making: Crete
LATE MAY–LATE JUNE
(6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
In Crete, you will learn to identify and understand the specifics of place, culture, and environment through the study of Greek vernacular forms and techniques in architecture, urban design, and crafts. You will experiment with locally-sourced and sustainable materials and traditional fabrication techniques, systematically examining the role of design within the material itself, the techniques of manufacture, construction, or assembly, and the form, shape, or structure of an object of material culture. (ARC 500)
Florence Summer Session
MAY 26–JULY 8, 2016
(3–9 credits)

The Florence Summer Session allows you to customize your program according to your interests and desire for exploration. To enhance your learning experience, most courses feature field trips and excursions within Florence and to locations outside the city. Internships are also available.

SOM 300 (3 credits) undergraduate
Examine the business world of “Made in Italy” using a mix of theory, case studies, guest lectures, and site visits.
ITALY

Literacy, Inclusion, and Diversity in Italy

MID-MAY–EARLY JUNE
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate

Disability studies, as a field of inquiry, have begun to emerge in Italy. At the same time, new ways of labeling students and new concerns about accountability and achievement are influencing educational policy and practice. This course will immerse you in the Italian education system through a combination of school visits and observations (as well as direct work with students on a shared literacy project). Beginning in Apiro and ending in Rome, you will visit cities in several regions of Italy, including Venice and Florence, and take day trips to other points of interest. (SPE/RED 400/600)

Italian Film Studies in Bologna

EARLY JUNE–MID-JULY
(6 credits) undergraduate or graduate

Attend the world’s most famous classic film festival, Cinema Ritrovato, while immersing yourself in all aspects of film. This program is based on a total filmmaker/film studies approach in which you’ll study Italian film history, visual strategy, preproduction planning, and production. You’ll generate ideas based on the study of Italian filmmakers and incorporate what you learn into your own worldview and filmmaking interests. (FIL 400/600 and FIL 500)

Madrid Summer Session

MAY 19–JULY 1, 2016
(3–9 credits)

Create your own program in Madrid by choosing from an array of courses. During the session, you’ll live with a family and experience daily life in Madrid. You’ll also participate in extracurricular activities, and as part of your curriculum, go on long-weekend study tours. Internships are also available.

Transnational Civil Society and Human Rights
AAS/PSC 300 (3 credits) undergraduate

This course examines how transnational civil society organizations such as SOS Racismo Club of Madrid and Doctors Without Borders, have become critical actors in the advancement of human rights issues, implementing their vision and coordinating their work across multiple borders.

Summer Internships in Madrid
BUA 470/670 or IPA/SPA 470 (3 credits) undergraduate or graduate

Summer internships are available in a variety of fields, including business, communications, education, and international relations. All placements require a good working knowledge of Spanish.

Hemingway in Europe and Spain
ETS 320 (3 credits) undergraduate

This course focuses on Hemingway’s encounter with Europe and Spain, as seen through many of his most famous texts: The First Forty-Nine Stories, A Moveable Feast, The Sun Also Rises, Death in the Afternoon, and For Whom the Bell Tolls.

Arts of Spain: Paintings, Architectures, Cities
HOA 209 (3 credits) undergraduate

THE MIDDLE EAST

Women and Gender in the Arab World
LATE JUNE–EARLY JULY
(3 credits) undergraduate or graduate
You will travel to Beirut and Amman for two weeks to directly engage with issues pertaining to the study of gender and sexuality in the Arab world within the specific context of these interconnected sites. The course covers a variety of historical, national, socio-cultural, literary, and theoretical perspectives on constructions of gender and sexuality in Arab societies. You will be equipped with tools to address some of the widespread assumptions and stereotypes that dominate Western discussions about the Arab world. (ENG/WGS/MES/QSX 400/600)

TURKEY
The Road to Democracy in the Islamic World
MID-JUNE–EARLY JULY
(6 credits) undergraduate or graduate
This program uses a foreign policy perspective to examine the influence of global players and stakeholders in the region, including Turkey, Iran, and especially the role of the United States. Istanbul is an ideal setting for this course, given its status as the first Muslim country in the world to embrace a democratic, largely secular government, in 1950. (PSC/IRP 400/600 and PSC/IRP/MES 400/600)

Over 400 students from universities across the country participate in SU Abroad summer programs each year.
