SYRACUSE HONG KONG CENTER

Spring 2019 Academic Update

PREPARE FOR ONLINE REGISTRATION SCHEDULED FOR November 13–20

Step 1 - Request Courses

- ☐ Review this packet and course descriptions on the Syracuse Abroad website.
- ☐ Consult the Time Schedule of Classes to select courses and plan your desired schedule.
 - You need special permission from Syracuse Abroad to take any course not found on the Time Schedule.
- ☐ Follow the online instructions to complete the Student Advising Form (SAF):
 - Log into your OrangeAbroad application. Go to Learning Content: Academic Packet.
- ☐ Submit your SAF by October 19.
 - Be sure to hit 'Submit' (don't simply print SAF).
 - Do NOT submit more than one questionnaire.

Step 2 – Seek Advising and Upload Signed SAF to Syracuse Abroad

- ☐ Print the PDF of your submitted SAF (emailed to you after submission) and take it to your advisor(s) for signature(s) and to ensure your course plan will keep you on track for graduation.
 - It is helpful to print and provide your advisor(s) with descriptions of all the courses you want to have approved.
- ☐ Upload SAF signed by your advisor(s) to OrangeAbroad no later than October 31.
 - Upload to Questionnaire: Student Advising Form (with Advisor's Signature). Be sure to hit 'Submit' (not 'Save'). Only legible PDF files will be accepted.
 - Syracuse Abroad will record any changes made on your uploaded SAF as a result of consultation with your advisor(s).

Step 3 – Register online for your Module B classes November 13-20

- It can be helpful to refer to your SAF when you register. You may access your uploaded SAF by returning to the Questionnaire at any time.

GRADES AND ACADEMIC RESOURCES

- Grades for Module C courses may not post to your SU transcript until July so you should ensure that this timing will not adversely affect you academically or in terms of financial aid awarding.
At Syracuse University, all work for registered classes must be completed on or before the degree certification date. If you are graduating, you should seek advice from your home college regarding your degree certification date and also be certain you are aware of any remaining degree requirements.
- Information on enrollment policies, grades, SU library resources, and registration can be found on the Preparing To Go website. Visiting students should also look at this site for information on transfer credit and requesting an SU transcript.
- You should carefully review academic policies applicable to all Syracuse Abroad programs.
- If you need to take an online course during a semester abroad, first review Syracuse Abroad-specific policy.
- Arrangements to do Module B coursework on an independent research basis if needed to satisfy a degree requirement must be made in advance. Due date for such proposals is November 15.
- You should regularly check your syr.edu email for messages from Syracuse Abroad.

COURSE INFORMATION

Program Requirements

You are required to register for the following:

- Module A: Signature Seminar, IRP/HUM 300.1, The Greater China: Past, Present and Future (3 credits). You may not drop the Signature Seminar.
- An introductory Chinese language course during Module B: (unless you have a prior background in Chinese language; see Chinese Language Registration).
- Module B: At least 6 credits and no more than 13 credits. You may not register for more than 19 total credits for all 3 modules without approval from your home college (visiting students seek approval from Syracuse Abroad); registration over 19 credits is subject to additional per-credit tuition charges.
- Module C: a 3-credit internship or independent study (see Module C Options).

Module B Course Offerings:

You may take 6-13 credits in Module B. Courses on the provisional Time Schedule will be offered based on sufficient student interest. Syracuse University reserves the right to cancel a course with low enrollment or to change the course format to an independent study.

Chinese Language Registration: If you have no Chinese language background, you will register for either

- CHI 101, Chinese I (beginning Mandarin, 4 credits)
- OR
- FLL 141, Beginning Cantonese Conversation (1 credit)

These introductory language courses consist of at least 18 hours of instruction per credit.

You may choose to continue previous course study by registering for:

- CHI 102 (a 4-credit course for students who have completed one semester of college-level Mandarin)
- CHI 202 (a 4-credit course for students who have completed three semesters of college-level Mandarin)
- CHI 302 (a 3-credit course for students who have completed five semesters of college-level Mandarin).

How to Determine your Chinese Language Level

- Visiting students: To select the appropriate language level, review the Chinese course descriptions and consult with an advisor in the languages department of your home school.
- Matriculated Syracuse University students: Unless one of the below applies, you must take the Chinese placement survey, accessed through MySlice, before submitting your SAF:
 - ☐ I have already taken one or more CHI classes at SU.
 - ☐ I have other prior background in a Chinese language and do not intend to register for a CHI class.
 - ☐ I have already taken SU's Chinese placement exam.

If you are an SU student with no background in a Chinese language, you should take the placement exam survey before submitting your SAF. Other SU students who haven't taken a CHI class at SU but are native and heritage speakers of Mandarin or students with Chinese AP, other college-level or transfer credits, and who intend to take a CHI class should also take the placement exam survey before submitting their SAF.

The placement exam/survey will identify your language level and allow you to register for the appropriate course during online registration in November. Instructions on accessing this exam are available online.

New Courses for Spring 2019

GEO 300.1 – Urban Geography of Hong Kong

EEE/PAF 400.1 – Environment, Sustainability and Policy in Hong Kong

Module C Options:

Module C offers you the opportunity for full-time engagement in guided research or field study on a specialized topic (registered as Independent Study) or an internship* with a local company or organization (registered as Experience Credit). You will earn 3 academic credits from the Syracuse University Hong Kong program for either option. You will not register for your Module C course during online registration, but be sure to indicate your preference on your Student Advising form.

Option A: Independent Study (Guided Research)

You may pursue guided research or an independent project during Module C. You can find a list of representative Hong Kong Center research projects (including management) on our website.

Please note:

- You have access to the libraries of City University of Hong Kong and the Hong Kong Central Library, which have voluminous collections on Asian studies. You are encouraged to supplement your research with field study and/or interviews.
- You may opt to do a research project related to a Module B course. You can meet with HK Center faculty during Module B to plan your guided research project. While some students choose to travel throughout the region to conduct field study, most students are able to complete their research using resources in Hong Kong. Travel outside of Hong Kong for research purposes during Module C is subject to Syracuse Hong Kong approval.
- If you are creating your own research project, the topic should relate to a subject taught in the Hong Kong program and should be approved in advance by a home-campus academic adviser.
- You are expected to meet regularly with your faculty sponsor to discuss your study progress. Typically, evaluation is based on a minimum 8000-word paper, though assignments may vary depending upon the project or research.

Option B: Experience Credit (internships*)

An internship is available for qualified students only. You must meet the following criteria:

- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Relevant educational coursework and/or prior business experience in requested business sector

Short-listed candidates will be invited to interview with the placement company during Module B. Placements cannot be guaranteed and may not be within your major of study. Internship vacancy depends on the availability of resources of our company sponsors during the semester. A list of Hong Kong internship partners can be found on our website.

If you have your own contacts for an internship in Hong Kong, please use them. Our Hong Kong Center staff will assist in processing all documentation for you in Hong Kong once your placement is secured. Be sure to bring any references and contact names with you. If you already have a lead on a specific internship in Hong Kong, let Josette Li, Hong Kong Center Program Manager, know via email (cli@syllr.edu) as soon as possible.

If you intend for an internship to meet a degree requirement, you should discuss this with your home college or major advisor before you go abroad in addition to informing Center staff.

- SU Newhouse students in communications placements must arrange for a main campus Newhouse faculty sponsor before going abroad and will need to petition for approval once the placement is confirmed.
- SU iSchool students in information management and technology placements must also complete iSchool internship requirements via Blackboard.
- Internships abroad do not fulfill SU Whitman students' internship degree requirement; students are encouraged to discuss any internship plan with Whitman advising staff.

Internships are defined as “Hands-on Attachment Training” according to the HK Immigration Department’s classification. Students who successfully secure a training placement either through the Syracuse Hong Kong Center or on their own must:*

- Register for 3 credits
- Attend classes and produce academic assignments during the attachment period
