Packing

- Pack a carry on with everything you need for your Signature Seminar, your semester luggage will be stored at the Strasbourg Center for the duration of the seminar
- Valuables/medication(s) should go in personal item (in case baggage is delayed, lost, etc.)
- Check with your airline(s) for baggage restrictions and fees: Too many bags or overweight bags will usually incur fees!
- Check the TSA website (www.tsa.gov) for the most up-to-date security regulations
- Don't bring too much stuff! Most clothing and daily necessities can be purchased abroad
- Leave room in your suitcase for souvenirs that you're going to buy!

Orientation

Attendance is mandatory for all on-site orientation meetings

- General orientation
- Housing orientation
- Academic orientation

Health Preparations

- Health Check-Up: Discuss continued medical/mental health treatment, and any immunizations
- Dental exam

Medication: Bring enough for your entire time abroad.

- You CANNOT mail medication! Contact us for a letter to your insurance company.
- ISOS resources
- Notify us about special storage requirements.

Traveling with medication:

- Pack all medication in personal item only
- Medication must be in original containers

Questions: Contact Assistant Director of Student Services, Bridget Demorest: brhughes@syr.edu

Insurance Abroad

- All students receive coverage through Syracuse Abroad's travel insurance through a provider called Chubb. This covers accidents and emergencies only.
 - Examples of covered incidents: food poisoning, strep throat, broken bones. For more information, refer to the policy details on our insurance webpage: <http://suabroad.syr.edu/health-and-safety/insurance/>
- Review private insurance for international coverage
- Students pay up front for medical visits, then submit claim for reimbursement
- Personal Property Insurance- consider purchasing additional coverage

International SOS

Download the free ISOS Assistance app

Technology

Cell phones:

- Bring U.S. phones for use pre- and post-semester travel
- Students can purchase a prepaid cellular phone plan or a SIM card for an unlocked U.S. phone
- Many apps provide free texting, calling, and video chatting with Wifi (Whatsapp, Viber, Skype, etc.)

Using devices abroad:

- Single voltage appliances will need a converter
- All appliances need a plug adaptor

Budgeting

- Contact your bank:
 - Let them know how long you will be living abroad
 - Notify them of your travel plans (while abroad)
 - Ask about affiliate banks abroad
 - Ask about international fees
- Do NOT bring large amounts of U.S. dollars
- Create a budget for shopping, traveling, and spending abroad
- Optional: Bring a small amount of local currency (taxi from airport)
- Be aware of exchange rates: They change all the time!
- Review the financial information section of the online Preparing to Go guide

Academics Abroad

Course registration:

- All students have received an academic packet with information about courses
- Students register for 12-19 credits (just like on home campus)
- Registration will be completed on-site
- Hold off on making personal travel plans until registration is finalized abroad: Required course trips

Academic accommodations (if applicable):

- Complete the Request for Accommodations in application portal
- Contact your office of disability services
- Questions? Contact Assistant Director, Student Services, Bridget Demorest: brhughes@syr.edu

Co-curricular activities:

- Take advantage of field trips offered through the center
- Internship and volunteer opportunities
- Join local groups and clubs

Expectations abroad:

- Students are bound by Syracuse University's Academic Integrity Policy
- Class attendance is mandatory (not excused for personal travel, visits from family/friends)

Housing

Homestays:

- Be flexible, respectful, and patient
- Communicate with your host family
- Practice the local language as much as possible
- Use utilities sparingly
- Housing is not available during program break
- Typically one student per family
- Bring a host family gift when you are introduced:
 - Small gift representative of your hometown/home state
 - Buy chocolates or flowers when you arrive

Living Abroad

Adjusting abroad:

- Be patient, adjust your expectations, keep an open mind
- Get involved with the local community
- Rely on your support system
- Maintain a sense of humor

Keep an open line of communication with the Syracuse Center staff about your health

Keep the local emergency phone number from orientation on hand

Attitudes toward your gender, race, nationality, ethnicity, or sexual orientation may be different than what you are used to. Staff are available to answer any questions you may have.

Staying safe

Personal travel abroad:

- Complete the required travel form for local staff
- Students must travel with their cell phones and chargers
- Check ISOS or State Department sites for up to date travel advice on travel warnings or delays

Physical safety:

- Traffic on the other side in some cities
- Pickpockets
- Be aware of your surroundings
- Alcohol: Vast majority of problems students have abroad are related to excessive drinking

In case of emergency

Keep cell phone on and charged at all times. Always travel with phone and charger.
