Visa Information: SU Beijing Fall 2017

In order to participate on the SU Beijing program, you will need to obtain a Chinese student visa. This information booklet will provide you with detailed information about the application process.

Passports

First of all, you must have a passport. If you do not have a passport, apply for one now. Your passport MUST be valid until July 16, 2018. If your passport expires on or before July 16, 2018, the Chinese consulate will not issue you a visa. (You also must have at least two blank pages in your passport.)

Details about obtaining a passport can be found on the National Passport Agency website at:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/passports.html>

Syracuse University students can go to the Marshall Square Mall post office near campus to apply for a passport. Passport information, passport application forms, and assistance are available.

It is highly recommended that you use the expedited service to apply for or renew your passport. This will allow you to get your passport in 2-3 weeks instead of the regular 6-8 week processing time. There are some additional fees involved (approximately $60) but it is worth not compromising your study abroad semester.

Remember to sign your passport upon receipt.

Chinese Student Visa

There are two basic components to applying for a Chinese student visa:

Part 1: Apply on-line to Tsinghua University (between March 15 and May 1, 2017); instructions are below. Submit your paperwork to SU Abroad by 5 p.m. on Friday, May 5. You may submit early.

You will need to upload your official passport photo to your Tsinghua on-line application according to specific dimensions that will require your use of a photo-editing program. Give yourself enough time.

Part 2: Apply on your own for a Chinese student visa through the Chinese Embassy/Consulate in your jurisdiction OR through a visa processing agency. (Between July 5 and July 31, 2017 or as soon as you receive your Tsinghua University admissions letter and JW202 from SU Abroad.)

Please read the following instructions carefully before you begin.

NOTE: You will need to upload an official passport photo with a white background to the Tsinghua University application. The size of the photo must be 400-420 px in width and 600-630px in height or it will not be accepted. You can use Microsoft Paint or Adobe Photoshop to resize the photo. Jpeg format is required.

After you submit your Tsinghua application, go back to “My Application” on the menu bar and upload your photo.

It will take two to three days for Tsinghua University to verify your application. You will receive an email from Tsinghua University informing you that your application has been verified or you can check the application status by going to “My Application” on the menu bar. Once your application has been verified, you must print out the “verified” application form and sign it where indicated. Parents do NOT need to sign this verified application.

Some quirks about the Tsinghua on-line application:

- Do not cut and paste information into the Tsinghua application. Type it new.
- If Tsinghua University indicates that an answer you provided is incorrect or not acceptable, you must go back into the application; delete the incorrect information; log out; then log back in and make the correction; save and submit.

 DO NOT PRINT OUT APPLICATION PRIOR TO TSINGHUA UNIVERSITY'S VERIFICATION! *****

After your Tsinghua application has been verified, please send the following items to Mary Fedorko of SU Abroad. The following items must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, May 5, 2017:

- Printed “verified” Tsinghua on-line application form with your original signature
- Four official passport photos with white background. Don't wear sleeveless or white/flesh-colored shirts; such photos will be rejected by Tsinghua University.

Part 2 – Apply for your Chinese student visa

In order to apply for your Chinese student visa, you will need to have a Tsinghua University admission letter and a JW202. Both of these documents will be express mailed to your home address around July 5. SU Abroad will confirm your address with you prior to mailing.

When you receive your JW202, please be sure to sign and date the form in blue ink where it indicates “signature of applicant.”

Apply for your Chinese student visa as soon as you receive your Tsinghua University admission letter and JW202 from SU Abroad. It usually takes about five business days for a U.S. citizen to receive his/her Chinese student visa. It may take longer if you completed the forms incorrectly or if you are asked to supply additional information. Non-U.S. citizens may face delays and may receive requests for additional documents, so apply for your Chinese student visa as soon as you receive your Tsinghua University admission letter and JW202.

How do you apply for your Chinese student visa?

There are two different ways to do this:

--You can apply in person to the Chinese consulate in your jurisdiction. (To locate the Chinese consulate in your jurisdiction, check <http://www.china-embassy.org/eng/zmzlgj/t84229.htm>.) You must go in person or you can send someone you trust to submit your visa application to the Chinese consulate. You cannot mail it directly to the consulate. You will also need to go back to the Chinese consulate to pick up your passport stamped with your visa. When you or your guardian submits your visa application, you will be given a pickup form. Remember to take this form with you at the time of visa pickup.

--If you cannot or do not want to go in person, you can apply through a visa processing company such as Travia (www.travia.com). Both U.S. citizens and non-U.S. citizens can apply for their Chinese student visa through Travia. Their service fee is approximately $109. This does not include the actual visa fee that the Chinese consulate charges and the express mailing costs. If you have questions when applying through Travia, please call their office directly or contact Mary Fedorko at SU Abroad (315-443-9424).

What will you need to apply for a Chinese student visa?

- Your actual passport, plus one clear photocopy of the information page.

--Be sure that you have signed your passport or it will not be accepted.

--Make sure your passport does not expire before July 16, 2018 or it will not be accepted.

--Make sure that you have at least two blank pages in your passport.

- Chinese visa application form V.2013, plus one photocopy

<http://www.china-embassy.org/eng/visas/fd/W020130830801798289342.pdf>

--An application template is included in this packet. Please review carefully before beginning the application and complete as instructed.

--Applications must be typed on-line in CAPITAL letters.

--Every question must be answered. Write “NONE” if a question does not apply to you.

--Print the forms upon completion. Remember to sign and date page 4.

- One official color passport photo

-- Don't wear sleeveless or white/flesh-colored shirts; no jewelry, eyeglasses, uniforms, or hats; no open-mouthed smiles; such photos will be rejected by the Chinese consulate. For specific instructions for photo requirements, please check this link:

<http://newyork.china-consulate.org/eng/lswss/t1423500.htm>

--Affix the photo to the first page of your application, where indicated.

- Tsinghua University admission letter, plus one copy

--This letter will be mailed to you from SU Abroad around July 5.

- JW202 form, plus one copy

--This will be mailed to you from SU Abroad around July 5.

--You must sign and date this form in blue ink where it says "signature of applicant."

- Other documents, if applicable

--Students who are not U.S. citizens will also be required to provide proof of residency in the U.S. (such as green card, or U.S. student visa and I-20). Other documents may also be required from non-U.S. citizens.

--Some consulates may require a clear photocopy of state issued ID (such as your driver's license).

- For applicants applying through New York or Houston consulates only:

--Applicants who have previously traveled to China must provide a copy of the previous Chinese visa. If the visa was issued to a previous passport, a photocopy of the canceled passport's information page must also be included.

- Applicants of Chinese origin (born in China) must include a copy of a previous Chinese visa or their last original Chinese passport. Make sure the Chinese Name field is completed on the Chinese visa application form, in Chinese characters.

- Visa processing fee

--The price of the visa varies for citizens of different countries due to China's reciprocal agreements.

--Please pay by Visa, MasterCard, money order, cashier's check or company check. Cash or personal checks are not accepted.

Once you receive your Chinese student visa stamped in your passport, please let Mary Fedorko know at mmfedork@syr.edu.

Special Instructions for Non-U.S. Citizens and U.S. Citizens NOT born in the U.S.

Students who are citizens of countries other than the United States and students who are not carrying a U.S. passport may have visa requirements different from those for U.S. citizens. If you are applying in person to the Chinese consulate, please check the consulate website carefully. If you are applying through a visa processing agency, check their website carefully for information on the documents you need.

Proof of resident status in the U.S. (green card, valid U.S. visa along with copy of valid I-20 or valid I-AP66) will be required in order to apply for a visa, in addition to the other documents.

Visa processing times for non-U.S. citizens and even U.S. citizens not born in the U.S. can take longer than normal, so please apply early.

If you are an international student studying in the U.S. on an F or J visa, you should consult with your Foreign Student Advisor concerning the signatures and documents necessary to reenter the U.S. to continue study after your semester abroad – THIS IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT!

Chinese Citizens:

Students holding Chinese citizenship and who travel on the passport of that country will not need a visa to study in China. But they must complete the Tsinghua on-line application.

Students holding Hong Kong IDs do not need to apply for a Chinese student visa. But they must complete the Tsinghua on-line application.
