

Make Sense of a Changing World

Spring 2021 Program

Syracuse London Center

Syracuse Abroad

Spring 2021 Dates

Program Milestone	Date
Arrival Day (Program Starts)	Monday, February 8
Classes Begin	Monday, February 15
Classes & Exams End	Friday, May 7
Departure Day (Program & Housing End)	Saturday, May 8
Optional Signature Seminars	May 9 th -18 th

Overview: Being COVID-Conscious

More Programming

- To keep our social bubbles smaller while discovering new places, we'll host more field trips taking you all around Great Britain.

Smaller Class Sizes

- Our max class size for most classes will be just 10 students, giving you a more personalized experience and greater access to your professors.

Faraday House (Syracuse London Campus in Bloomsbury)

- Our team have implemented robust safety measures to make our London center COVID-secure in line with UK government guidance.

Make Sense of a Changing World

Debate global issues with your classmates and dedicated professors

Some of our Spring 2021 courses

- AAS300 - “All Black Everything: Well-Being, Justice, Equality & Social Change”
- ECN362 - “Globalization, Development and the Environment”
- PSC315 - “Politics and Media: Mass Persuasion”
- PSY300 - “Health Psychology: Mind, Body, Culture”
- QSX300/SOC200 - “Business of Nightlife: London Subcultures”

Justin Hunt,
QSX300 Professor

Guilaine Kinouani,
AAS300 Professor

Your Passport, Your Story

*Capture your experiences through our unique London Passport Program

Earn passport stamps by joining us* for

- Weekend field trips exploring the UK (the Lake District, Wales, and Scotland)
- Tours of Oxford and Cambridge
- Day trips to British castles and Stonehenge
- Discoveries of “Hidden London”
- Campus debates on urgent global issues

*No additional fee – these trips are included in your Program Fee.

Stephen Halliday,
Cultural Engagement

World Ready, Career Ready

- Invest in your professional development with our “Global Workplace” internship program*
- Choose from 50+ courses offered across disciplines, majors and colleges
- Safely visit museums, theatres, and sport arenas during class site visits
- Get published in our “Virtual Classroom”

Dr. Maggie Scull,
Internship Program

*OrangeAbroad application and visa required in order to intern.

Grow Roots in New Places

Go global as a London local

- Experience a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to make this global city your own, without typical tourist crowds
- Join British student clubs about music, films, politics, and more
- Scrimmage alongside British students in sports tournaments
- Travel to Lockerbie, Scotland for Pan Am Flight 103 Remembrance

Dr. Becca Farnum,
Community Outreach

Transcend Boundaries, Transform Worlds

Earn three credits on an intensive travelling course May 9th -18th after regular classes end

Optional Signature Seminars*

- “Borders in Flux:
Identities and Conflict in Ireland”
 - Dublin, Derry, and Belfast
- “Sustainability on Trial:
Environmental Justice in Northern Europe”
 - Norfolk, Bristol, and Glasgow

*OrangeAbroad application and additional fee involved.

Safety Abroad

International SOS

- Medical & Security Advisory Service available 24/7 providing access to medical care and security advice if an issue comes up abroad.

Alert Traveler

- GPS function providing pertinent alerts, advisories, and communication with students through a mobile app should an emergency situation arise.

Syracuse Abroad Resources

- Seth Tucker: Director of Global Safety
- Bridget Demorest: Assistant Director of Student Services

Individual Support

- London staff - including a systemic social worker and learning advocacy expert - are on hand to assist with medical concerns, personal stress, and study support.
- London Health & Safety
- London Academics

Prof. Emmanuelle Dirix,
Learning Support

Lisa Watkins
Student Wellbeing

Meet your London Staff

Our administrative staff of 20 come from a dozen different countries.

Dr. Troy Gordon,
Center Director

Dr. Meghan Callahan,
Assistant Director, Academics

Eugenia Francis-Williams

Rosie Goldsmith

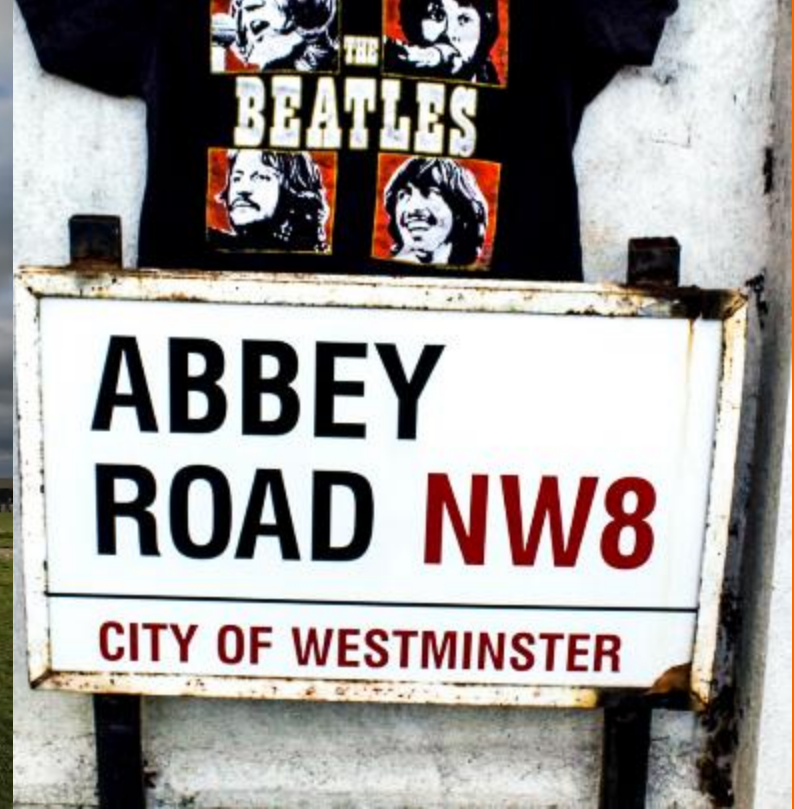

Marco Figueiredo

Gokulna Joshi

London is our home
Soon it will be yours, too

Contact us with questions!

Joelle Orecki: jlorecki@syr.edu

International Program Advisor, London